

George Eastman Museum Corporate Member Weeks October 1–16, 2016

In appreciation for your generous support, the George Eastman Museum invites your employees and their families to enjoy FREE general admission each day from October 1-16, 2016.

Experience all that the George Eastman Museum has to offer:

- Photography exhibitions including:
 - Photography and America's National Parks, open through October 2, 2016 only
 - Catherine Opie: 700 Nimes Road, featuring photographs taken inside the home of screen star and cultural icon Elizabeth Taylor
- Guided gallery tours each day at 1 p.m.
- Guided tours of George Eastman's historic mansion, Tuesday–Saturday at 10:30 a.m. and 2 p.m.; Sundays at 2 p.m.
- Music in the mansion on Sundays at 3 p.m.
- Discovery Room activities for children
- 10% discount in the Museum Store
- Museum Café open all day for lunch or snack purchases

Explore America's national parks at our photography exhibition, through Sunday, October 2 only.

To redeem this free admission offer, present your employee badge, business card, or pay stub along with photo ID at the museum's Lipson Welcome Center and/or Museum Store each time you visit from October 1-16, 2016. The free admission offer is valid for 2 adults and up to 4 children under age 18, per visit. Please note: Free admission does not apply to Dryden Theatre programs or film screenings.

Museum & Store Hours: Tuesday–Saturday, 10 a.m.–5 p.m.; Sunday 11 a.m.–5 p.m. Closed Mondays.

Catherine Opie (American, b. 1961). Andy Warhol to Elizabeth (Self-Portrait Artist) from the 700 Nimes Road portfolio, 2010–2011. © Catherine Opie.

900 East Avenue, Rochester, New York
(585) 271-3361 | eastman.org