

George Eastman's mansion in Rochester, New York, was built between 1902 and 1905. Today, it is the location of the George Eastman Museum.

GEORGE
EASTMAN
MUSEUM

COLORING SHEET

The grand staircase is the first thing you see if you enter the front door of George Eastman's mansion.

GEORGE
EASTMAN
MUSEUM

COLORING SHEET

The Conservatory is the large room where George Eastman entertained friends with concerts, parties, and organ recitals.

GEORGE
EASTMAN
MUSEUM

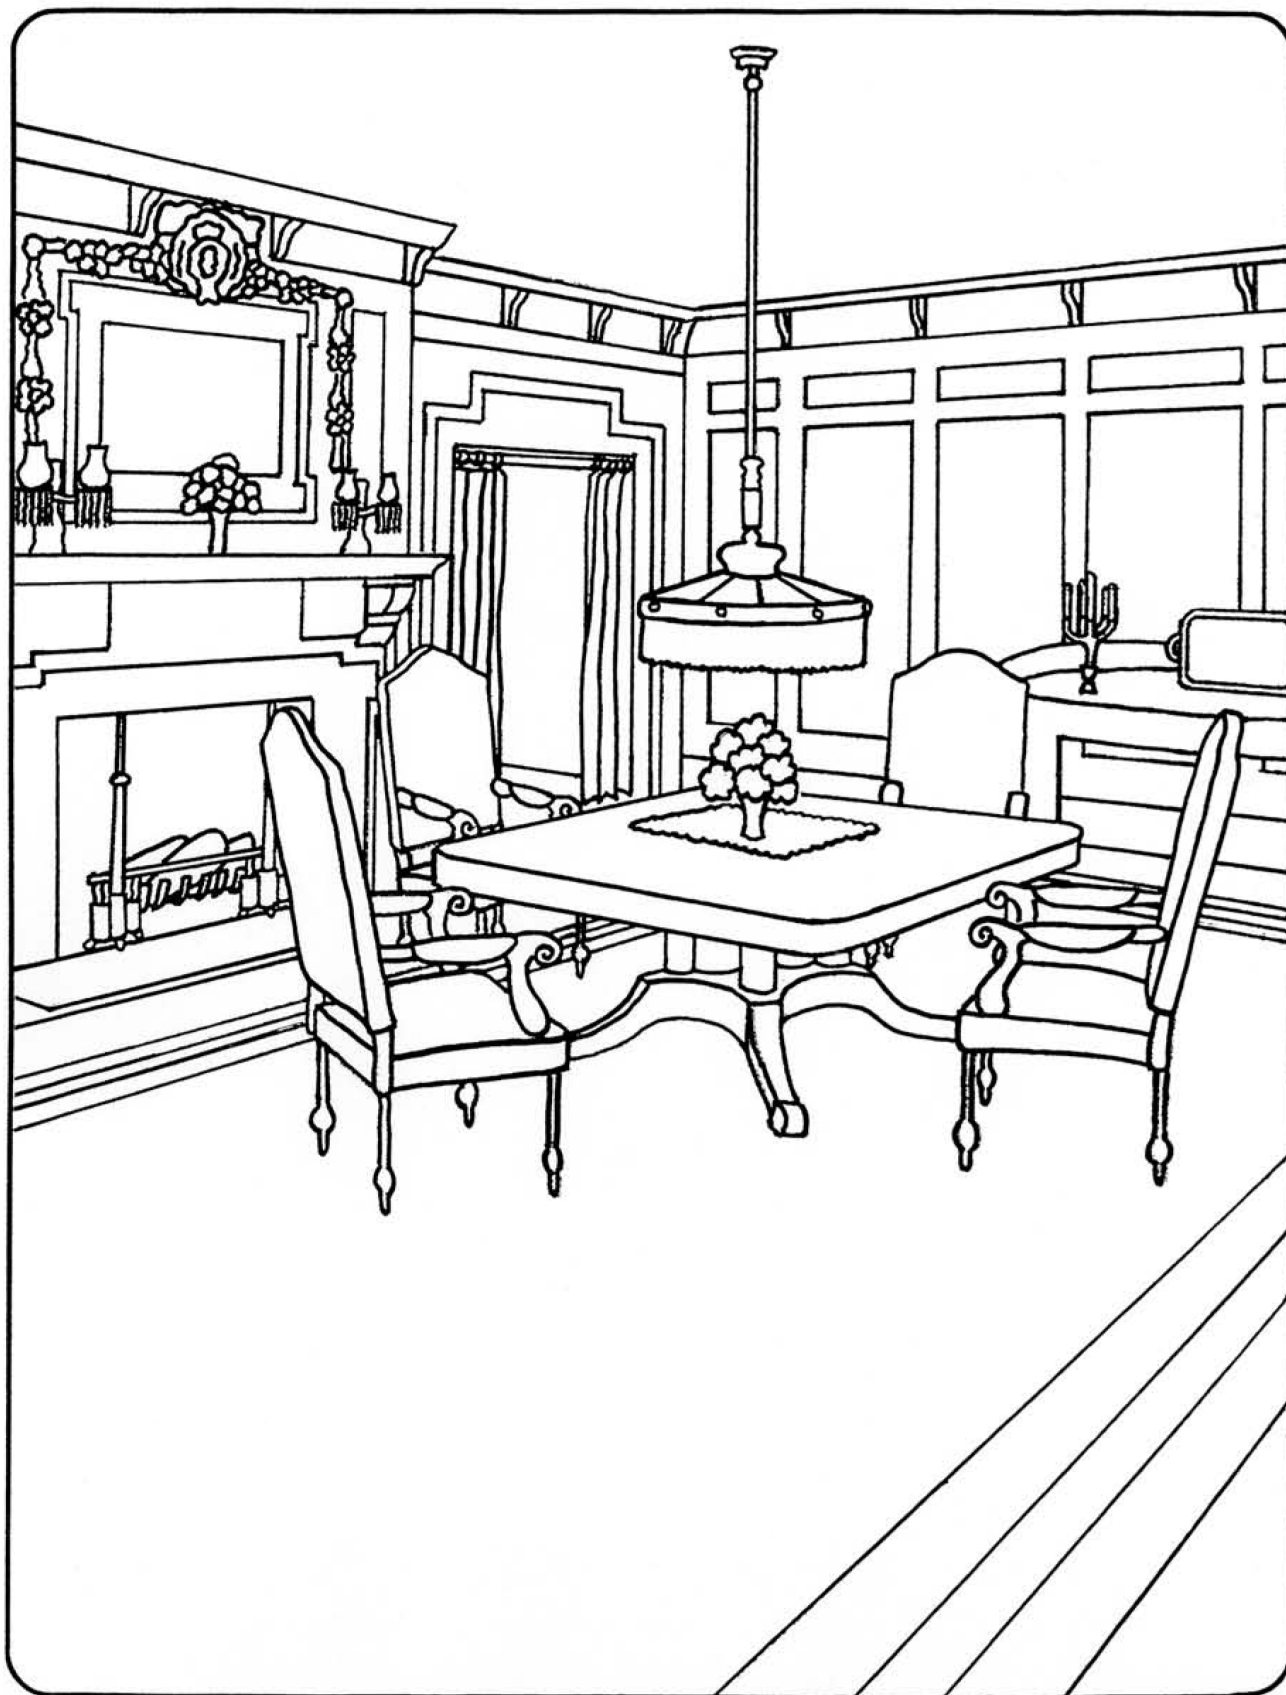

COLORING SHEET

This is the formal dining room, where George Eastman hosted dinner parties for friends.

GEORGE
EASTMAN
MUSEUM

COLORING SHEET

George Eastman enjoyed the beautiful flowers that grew in his gardens and greenhouses. This is the Terrace Garden.

GEORGE
EASTMAN
MUSEUM

COLORING SHEET

