

Culinary & Culture

ONE DAY ITINERARY

GEORGE
EASTMAN
MUSEUM

ROCHESTER, NY (“THE ROC”), AND ITS SURROUNDING TOWNS, has been home to many Equal Rights activists and heroes throughout history. Embrace this time to celebrate what these trailblazers stood for and how the local community supports and has grown as a result. The ROC is a great place to feed your mind and body. Rich history, culture, and culinary delights, make it a perfect destination for enrichment and entertainment.

---

THE 5 MILE CAFÉ

2084 Five Mile Line Rd, Penfield, NY

Start with a delicious breakfast at this black family-owned restaurant. You will enjoy familiar American fare as you refuel for your day. Lilleth Campbell-Larkins, a native of Jamaica, owns the restaurant and runs it with her son, Dalbert Andrae Chambers. It has outdoor seating on its front porch and back patio. They promise their guests a great meal in a cozy family friendly atmosphere with FABULOUS service!!!!

ROCHESTER MUSEUM AND SCIENCE CENTER

657 East Ave, Rochester, NY

Exhibition: Flight to Freedom: Rochester's Underground Railroad

Explore the paths that courageous freedom seekers followed through Rochester in this dramatic, interactive exhibition. Walk in the footsteps of Austin Steward, Frederick Douglass, Harriet Jacobs, and Reverend Thomas James as they overcome huge obstacles to build free lives. Learn how they joined Rochester activists in the fight to abolish slavery and help others seeking freedom.

Dive into immersive experiences that delve into the world of science and illuminate cultural history as you explore this Museum and Planetarium. The RMSC will provide you with the inspiration and tools that will delight and wonder you as you contemplate solving the deepest challenges of our times. A place where you are encouraged to follow your own unique journey.

Top: The 5 Miler Café

Bottom: Rochester Museum and Science Center

GEORGE EASTMAN MUSEUM

900 East Ave, Rochester, NY

Exhibition: *Joshua Rashaad McFadden:
I Believe I'll Run On*

THROUGH JUNE 19, 2022

Artist Joshua Rashaad McFadden (American, b. 1990) uses photography to engage some of the most challenging subject matter of our time. Working across genres—social documentary, reportage, portraiture, and fine arts—he critically examines race, masculinity, sexuality, and gender in the United States. His work reveals the destructive impact of these constructs on Black Americans.

Continue your artistic journey engaging in historic and modern art at the George Eastman Museum, which is located on the estate of George Eastman, the pioneer of popular photography and motion picture film. The George Eastman Museum was founded in 1947 and is the world's oldest photography museum and one of the oldest film archives. The museum holds incomparable collections. There is a range of experiences for all ages including photography, motion pictures, history, gardens, architecture, and historic houses. The institution is also a long-time leader in film preservation and photographic conservation. You won't want to miss the Museum's gift shop, filled with an array of gifts relating to photography, cinema, and

Viticulture Wine Bar

George Eastman himself! You have fed your mind, now feed your stomach with a late lunch at Open Face at Eastman Museum. Open Face features a menu of inclusivity in their hand-crafted specialty items offering sandwiches, soups and salads. Gluten-free, vegan, vegetarian, or omnivore, folks can always eat together.

VITICULTURE WINE BAR

217 Alexander St, Rochester, NY

Viticulture is Rochester's newest wine bar. This Black owned establishment is focused on offering a well curated and rotating selection of wines from the top three wine producing regions of the world: Spain, Italy, and France. Relax in this comfortable and unique space that is made for enjoying quality wine and exceptional hospitality combined with the opportunity for wine education and engagement. A visit here will provide you a new and improved love for wine.