

Community-Centered Resources

Thank you for visiting Southern Rites at the George Eastman Museum in Rochester, NY. For community-centered resources understanding Black, Indigenous, and people of color experiences, please visit:

The Rochester Public Library - Understanding Black Experiences Resource Page
roccitylibrary.org/understanding-black-experiences/community-resources/

Monroe Country Library System - Black Lives Matter: An Anti-Racism Resource Page
libraryweb.org/whats\_new/black-lives-matter-an-anti-racism-resource-page/

Resources on the segregation in Rochester schools:

Documentary Video "Your Children Are Very Greatly In Danger." Robert Bell and Justin Murphy, Rochester Democrat and Chronicle. February 21, 2022.
democratandchronicle.com/videos/news/2022/02/22/video-your-children-very-greatly-danger/9295044002/

Murphy Justin. "Your Children Are Very Greatly in Danger: School Segregation in Rochester," New York. Cornell University Press, 2022.

GEORGE
EASTMAN
MUSEUM

900 EAST AVENUE, ROCHESTER, NY | eastman.org