

The KWL Strategy: Researching Russia's Invasion of Ukraine

Using the chart below list what you know about Russia's invasion of Ukraine. After listing what you know in column 1, then list what you want to learn in column 2. In column 2, think about what questions you have that are unanswered. Then find an article about the invasion in either the New York Times or the Washington Post.

Article _____

Read the article and in column 3 describe what you learned from the article. Did the article provide you with the answers you were seeking?

1. What I Know	2. What I Want to Learn	3. What I Learned

How will you integrate the information you learned?

Why do you think it is important to learn about war and conflicts in other parts of the world?
